

2022 Scorecard

Colin Allred

Texas - 32

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Allred has been an effective champion on our issue set. He understands the need for a fair tax code and that working Americans deserve a living wage.

2022 Scorecard

Cindy Axne

Iowa - 3

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: For the most part we are extremely pleased with Rep. Axne's work in congress. While she was a co-author of the Agriculture Committee letter on the Stepped-Up Basis loophole, we believe her support of this letter represents her district's concerns in good faith. We have confidence that she will eventually support a fair compromise that both amends this carve-out for the wealthy and leaves the vast majority of family farms unaffected.

Carolyn Bourdeaux

Georgia - 7

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Bourdeaux's vote in support for a living wage for all Americans. While previously Rep. Bourdeaux seemed committed to the idea of high net worth individuals and corporations paying their fair share of taxes, we were disappointed in her hesitation to support a budget resolution with those explicit goals.

Matt Cartwright

Pennsylvania - 8

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Cartwright is a strong advocate for our issues. He is outspoken about the need for a fair tax code, a living wage, and reforms to ensure American citizens, not just special interests, have a voice in our political process. Even before the 2017 tax scam, Rep. Cartwright has been against huge tax breaks for corporations.

Ed Case

Hawaii - 1

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

We are pleased with Rep. Case's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his support for necessary democratic reforms. But as a Democrat from a safe district, we have been disappointed with his effort water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

2022 Scorecard

Jim Costa

California - 16

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Costa's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his support for necessary democratic reforms. But we have been disappointed with his effort to water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

2022 Scorecard

Angie Craig

Minnesota - 2

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased that Rep. Craig supports a living wage for all Americans and appreciate her focus on key issues with the 2017 tax scam. That said, her outspoken defense of the Stepped-Up basis loophole is a glaring blemish on her otherwise respectable record

Henry Cuellar

Texas - 28

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Cuellar's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his support for necessary democratic reforms. But we have been disappointed with his effort to water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

2022 Scorecard

Sharice Davids

Kansas - 3

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Davids' support for a living wage. It is also clear that Rep. Davids understands the 2017 tax scam was a giveaway to multinational corporations and the extremely wealthy, and that a more progressive tax structure is in the best interests of all Americans.

Peter DeFazio

Oregon - 4

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. DeFazio is a great advocate on these issues. He is outspoken about the need for fair taxes, a living wage, and reforms to ensure American citizens, not just special interests, have a voice in our political process. We also appreciate his focus on solutions, such as increased resources for IRS enforcement to stop wealthy tax cheats.

Antonio Delgado

New York - 19

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Overall, Rep. Delgado has a strong record on these issues. We aren't concerned about his signature on the Ag. Committee letter on the Stepped-Up Basis loophole. We believe his support of this letter represents his district's concerns in good faith, and that he will eventually support a fair compromise that both amends this carve-out for the wealthy while leaving the vast majority of family farms unaffected.

Lizzie P. Fletcher

Texas - 7

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We appreciate that Rep. Fletcher voted for the Raise the Wage Act. While we understand her Texas constituents are wary of any tax-related reforms, we hope she can find a way to support necessary changes to the Republican's disastrous 2017 legislation while remaining true to the Houston area citizens she represents.

Jared Golden

Maine- 2

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Golden's support for a living wage for all Americans. We appreciate his support for improved IRS enforcement to stop wealthy tax cheats. However, we were disappointed with his hesitation to support a budget resolution that would make vital changes to our country's broken tax code.

Vincente Gonzáles

Texas - 15

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: While we are pleased Rep. Gonzáles voted for the Raise the Wage Act, there is reason to be concerned about his position on progressive taxation. In the last 70 years, Taxes on the very wealthy have gone in one direction – down. Rep. Gonzales needs to be part of the solution and support creating a more fair tax code.

Josh Gottheimer

New Jersey - 5

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Gottheimer's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his support for necessary democratic reforms. That said, we have been disappointed with his efforts to threaten the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

Jahana Hayes

Connecticut - 5

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Jahana Hayes is a stellar representative. She knows more about tax policies than her critics and understands how our broken tax code unfairly treats the vast majority of American families while prioritizing the interests of corporations and the extremely wealthy.

2022 Scorecard

Josh Harder

California - 10

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

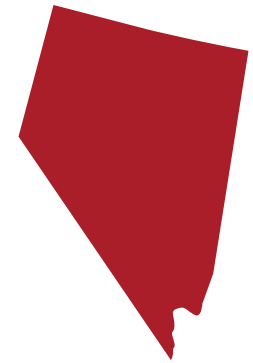

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Harder has a strong record on these issues. We believe his support of the Agriculture Committee letter on the Stepped-Up Basis loophole represents his district's concerns in good faith, and that he will eventually support a fair compromise that both amends this carve-out for the wealthy while leaving the vast majority of family farms unaffected.

Steven Horsford

Nevada - 4

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Horsford's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his approach to tax policy. He recognizes the glaring flaws with the Republicans 2017 rewrite of the tax code and we look forward to his contributions in congress for years to come.

2022 Scorecard

Andy Kim

New Jersey - 3

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

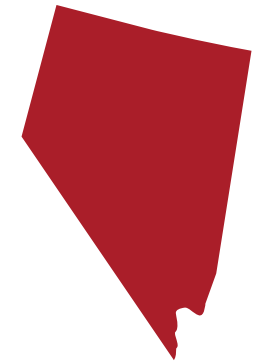

Political Equality:

Summary: We are thankful to have Rep. Kim in congress. He is a reliable vote on fair wages. We are also pleased that Rep. Kim recognizes specific and structural issues with the current tax code, though we would prefer if he didn't prioritize eliminating the SALT deduction cap, a regressive tax that mostly favors the wealthy.

Susie Lee

Nevada - 3

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Lee's support for a living wage for all Americans, and her approach to tax policy. She recognizes the glaring flaws with the Republicans 2017 rewrite of the tax code and we look forward to her contributions in congress for years to come.

2022 Scorecard

Mike Levin

California - 49

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

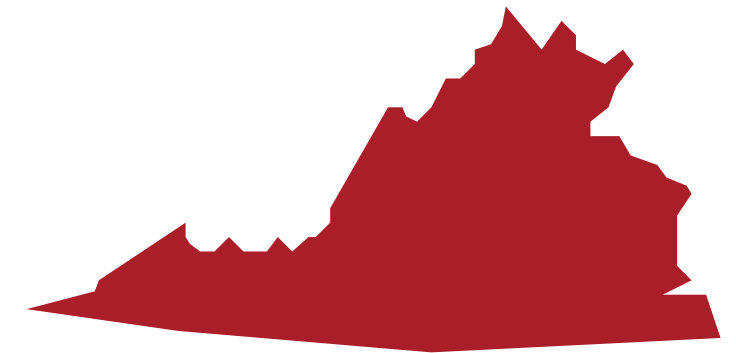

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Levin is a great advocate on our issue set. He is outspoken about the need for fair taxes, a living wage, and reforms to ensure American citizens, not just special interests, have a voice in our political process.

Elaine Luria

Virginia - 2

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

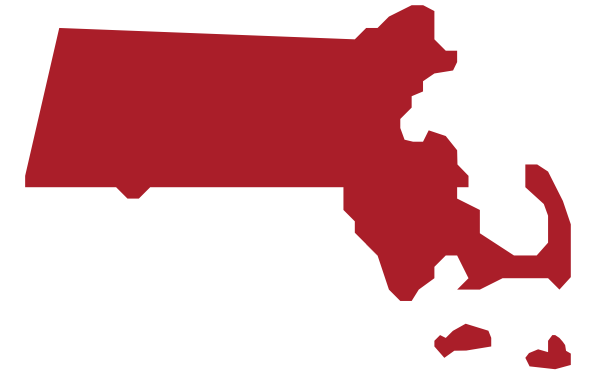

Summary: We're pleased the seat is not held by a conservative Republican, and that Rep. Luria supported the Raise The Wage Act in 2019. However, she reversed a core position and accepted corporate PAC money after taking the "No PAC Pledge" with so many of her colleagues. We found this discouraging to say the least. We are hopeful this bad choice won't prevent her from helping to reform our broken campaign finance system.

2022 Scorecard

Richard Neal

Massachusetts - 1

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Neal's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his support for necessary democratic reforms. But as an important Democrat from a safe district, he has been an obstacle, rather than a champion, when it comes to tax fairness and fulfilling the President's agenda and the promises made to voters. Americans should expect more from Rep. Neal.

Tom Malinowski

New Jersey - 7

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are thankful to have Rep. Malinowski in congress. He is a reliable vote on fair wages. We are also pleased that Rep. Malinowski recognizes specific and structural issues with the current tax code, though we would prefer if he didn't prioritize eliminating the SALT deduction cap, a regressive tax that mostly favors the wealthy.

Lucy McBath

Georgia - 6

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased Rep. McBath supports a living wage for all Americans. While we would like for her to vocally support a more progressive tax structure, we expect she would be nothing but helpful in repealing the most flagrant elements of the disastrous 2017 tax scam passed by the Republicans.

Stephanie Murphy

Florida - 7

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Murphy's support for a living wage for all Americans, and her support for necessary democratic reforms. But we have been disappointed with her effort to water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

Tom O'Halleran

Arizona - 1

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

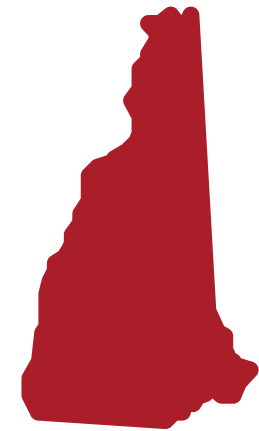

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased Rep. O'Halleran voted for the Raise The Wage Act in 2019. His commitment to a more fair tax system comes with a few caveats, but Rep. O'Halleran is a step up from a conservative Republican. We are hopeful he will support efforts to reform our tax code so the burden doesn't fall on the shoulders of working Americans, while letting corporations and wealthy individuals off the hook.

Chris Pappas

New Hampshire - 1

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Pappas supported the Raise the Wage Act. We also appreciate his position on the Republicans' 2017 tax scam, as he has been critical of the major giveaways for "big corporations and the very wealthy." On this, we could not agree more.

2022 Scorecard

Scott Peters

California - 52

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Peter's support for a living wage for all Americans, and his support for necessary democratic reforms. But as a Democrat from a safe district, we have been disappointed with his effort water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

2022 Scorecard

Katie Porter

California - 45

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Porter is one of the most effective and consistent lawmakers in Congress. Her record on our issue set is entirely positive. We are confident she is a champion we can count on.

Kathleen Rice

New York - 4

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Rice's support for a living wage for all Americans, and her support for necessary democratic reforms. But we have been disappointed with her efforts to water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill, especially as it pertains to creating a more fair and progressive tax structure.

Kurt Schrader

Oregon - 5

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Schrader's support for necessary democratic reforms. Otherwise, he is a disappointment as a representative. He was one of the few Democrats willing to vote against a living wage, and his efforts to water down the President's Build Back Better reconciliation bill are worthy of condemnation. We should all expect more from Rep. Schrader.

2022 Scorecard

Kim Schrier

Washington - 8

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Schrier has a strong record on these issues. We aren't concerned with her signature on the Agriculture Committee letter concerning the Stepped-Up Basis loophole. We believe her support of this letter represents her district's concerns in good faith, and that she will eventually support a fair compromise that both amends this carve-out for the wealthy while leaving the vast majority of family farms unaffected.

Mikie Sherrill

New Jersey - 11

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Sherrill's support for a living wage for all Americans, and her commitment to political equality. We are also pleased that Rep. Sherrill recognizes specific and structural issues with the current tax code, though we would prefer if she didn't prioritize eliminating the SALT deduction cap, a regressive tax that mostly favors the wealthy.

2022 Scorecard

Elise Slotkin

Michigan - 8

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased that Rep. Slotkin's support for a living wage for all Americans, especially since the Raise the Wage Act would positively impact many families in her district. We are hopeful she will participate in efforts to resolve the glaring inequities in our tax code so that working families do not pay a higher rate than corporations and the extremely wealthy.

Haley Stevens

Michigan - 11

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

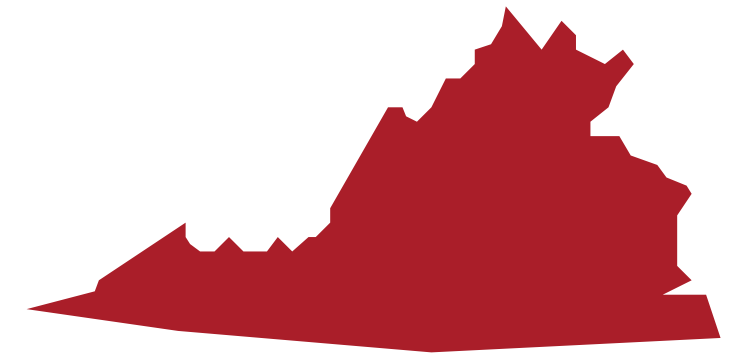

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Stevens has a strong record in our issue areas. While she is not as vocal as we'd prefer, she understands the need for a more fair tax code. We are hopeful she will be constructive when it comes to reforming the Republicans' disastrous 2017 tax scam to eliminate incentives for offshoring of American jobs.

Abigail Spanberger

Virginia - 7

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: Rep. Spanberger has been consistent on our issue set. On the stepped-up basis loophole, we are hopeful that she will eventually support a fair compromise that both amends this carve-out for the wealthy while leaving the vast majority of family farms unaffected.

Lauren Underwood

Illinois - 14

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We are pleased with Rep. Underwood's support for a living wage for all Americans, and her support for necessary democratic reforms. We are pleased that Rep. Underwood recognizes specific and structural issues with the current tax code, though we would prefer if she didn't prioritize eliminating the SALT deduction cap, a regressive tax that mostly favors the wealthy.

2022 Scorecard

Susan Wild

Pennsylvania - 7

ON THE ISSUES:

Fair Taxes:

Livable Wages:

Political Equality:

Summary: We appreciate Rep. Wild's support for a living wage. On taxes, she has been an encouraging ally. She understands that there is no reason middle-class families should be taxed at a higher rate than the extremely wealthy.
